Director of Operations Bio Farma won "The Best Prominent Alumni MBA" Category MBA Research Advisor

> (Bandung 18/6), Director of Operations Bio Farma, M. Rahman Roestan won the award "The Best Prominent Alumni MBA" for the category (MBA Research Advisor), at the awards ceremony which was held virtually on June 18, 2021. Assessment for this award , based on several indicators: Having a contribution to SBM with the support of : teaching, Research,Internship placement and job vacancy.

Other indicators are local/national/global scale proved by the number of beneficiaries, Having national/global recognition as evidenced by awards/news/SEO rankings, A long and special career in the field (above 5 years in the same field), Having a contribution to the target achievement program sustainable global development or Sustainable development goals (SDGs) and have an impact in the economic, environmental & social fields and Have innovation run a digital business in the company or through its business

According to the Director of Communication & Alumni Relations of SBM ITB, Dr. N. Nurlaela Arief, to get the winner, ITB has selected alumni in several stage. This MBA ITB award is collaborate with Kazee Big Data Analytics. "The selection process begins with curation of tracer study data, followed by candidate recommendations from SBM ITB, then research based on Monitoring Media Kazee Big Data Analytics and ends with FGD assessment by SBM Experts," said Nurlaela.

Besides Rahman Roestan, MBA ITB also gave awards to the Minister of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries of the Republic of Indonesia, Sakti Wahyu Trenggono for the category of national leaders and several other MBA ITB alumni figures.(ed/ss)