Giving Vaccines Becomes Effective, Efficient and Cheap Way

JAKARTA - Giving vaccines is very important for the future of a nation's future generation. Likewise for the next generation of Indonesia. Because health is an important factor in the development of a nation.

This was stated by the Director General of Information and Public Communication of the Ministry of Communication and Information Technology (Director General of IKP Kemkominfo) Rosarita Niken Widiastuti when opening the Forum Merdeka Barat 9 Media Discussion (Dismed FMB'9).

This time, Dismed FMB'9 has the theme "The Long Way of MR Vaccine MUI Fatwa" was held in the Multipurpose Hall of the Ministry of Communication and Information (Kemkominfo), Jakarta, Tuesday (09/18/2018).

With the giving of vaccines, according to the Directorate General of IKP Kemkominfo, it can be a very efficient and effective, and cheap way to break the chain of transmission of disease.

"Therefore, about how the fatwa of the MUI (Indonesian Religious Leader) about vaccines and what kind of a long way to go about the MUI fatwa will be presented by the speakers who will provide an explanation regarding this matter," Niken said.

Minister of Health Nila F Moeloek, Head of the National Agency of Drug and Food Control (BPOM) Penny K Lukito, President Director of PT Bio Farma M Rahman Roestan, and Leader of MUI KH Ma'ruf Amin also attended as a resource person in FMB 9 this time.
